The Shed relies on volunteers to help with its running and for fundraising. It is a condition of membership that each member volunteer for two Shed activities each financial year. A typical activity would be a busy bee or a fundraising sausage sizzle. Members will be asked to cover activities within their capabilities - there is always something that anyone can undertake.

Information for Applicants:

This form and the current membership fee shall be handed to a committee member or posted/mailed to the contact details listed below.

- If your application is accepted, your name and address, as provided above, must be recorded in a register of members and be made available to other members, upon request (Rule 24.2)
- All members are entitled to view the Rules of the Association which is on our website.

Fremantle Men's Community Shed Inc is a Registered Charity and a Not for Profit organisation.
